The Ferry Conservation District office is closed and our staff is working from home until further notice.

Effective March 24, 2020, the Ferry Conservation District office is closed until further notice and our staff is working from home. All scheduled district events have been postponed or cancelled (exceptions include call-in monthly Board of Supervisor meetings and the Plant Sale Pick-up scheduled for April 17 and 18).

We're taking this action in response to recommendations from health experts to stop the spread of the COVID-19 coronavirus. Safety is our priority, so for now we're altering our normal operations to put the well-being of Washingtonians first.

What this means:

- Staff will be working remotely and will be responsive to questions and concerns from the public. Staff will continue to process existing cost-share project requests and will welcome additional inquiries regarding technical and cost-share assistance with conservation projects (see below "Get in touch" for contact info).
- Our Spring Plant Sale will take place as planned! Plant pickup at the Ferry County Fairgrounds is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, April 17 and 18. Strict social distancing protocol will be followed. (We still have plants available to order. Contact us for more info.)
- The Spring Conservation Fair (scheduled for Saturday, April 18) has been postponed until Fall 2020 (Date TBA).
- The Saturday Morning Live series of programs (Dr. Patricia Talcott (WSU), Guy Gifford (DNR) and Ken Bevis (DNR) will be rescheduled for a later date (TBA).
- We will still hold monthly call-in Board of Supervisor meetings.
